AUG-3'27

Krazy Kat is driving on a dog-sled up to the North Pole where the nights are six months long, to open a cabaret with his sweetheart, Miss Kwack-Kwack who is accompanying him. When they get there, he hangs out a sign on an igloo, and himself as waiter, orchestra and proprietor things start going.

One of the guests forces unwelcome attention on Miss Kwack-Kwack, Krazy Kat's sweetheart, and he goes to the rescue and a battle ensues. The villain chases them and they run across blocks of ince on the ocean. There Krazy Kat has a fight with a seal who was tossing him around.

They arrive on land and Krazy Kat and the seal go behind an ice-berg and Krazy Kat comes out with a seal coat for his girl friend. The denuded seal staggers in front of the ice-berg and the picture fades out with him seeing stars which from the Paramount insignia.
